These materials were collected by anthropologist Simon Ottenberg in the course of carrying out field research in Nigeria in 1952-53, 1959-60, and during a visit to Nigeria in the summer of 1966. The publications are mainly of Nigerian origin, although a few items of interest published elsewhere have been included. The pamphlets and other materials appeared mainly between 1940 and 1965, although a few later items have been added. The collection concentrates on works published in the old Eastern Region of Nigeria, and written by people of Ibo background.

The pamphlets listed in this inventory are available on microfilm at the Hoover Institution Library, Stanford University, Stanford, California.
