

STEPHEN H. HABER

*Peter and Helen Bing
Senior Fellow*

Expertise: Property rights in Latin America; the regulation of banks and financial markets in Latin America, especially in Mexico; Latin American industrial development

In addition to his Hoover appointment, Stephen Haber is the A. A. and Jeanne Welch Milligan Professor in the School of Humanities and Science at Stanford University. He is also a senior fellow of the Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research and director of the Social Science History Institute at Stanford. Among his recent books are Crony Capitalism and Economic Growth in Latin America (2002), The Mexican Economy (2002), and The Politics of Property Rights: Political Instability, Credible Commitments, and Economic Growth in Mexico (forthcoming). His current work focuses on the economics of authoritarian governments and the comparative analysis of property rights. He received his Ph.D. in history from the University of California, Los Angeles.