

NORMAN M. NAIMARK

Senior Fellow

Expertise: Russian and European history, history of communism, genocide and ethnic cleansing in the twentieth century, Eastern Europe and the Balkans

In addition to his Hoover appointment, Norman Naimark holds an endowed professorship in the Department of History at Stanford University, where he also received his Ph.D. and has served as department chair. His current research focuses on Stalin and Europe, as well as on problems of mass killing in the twentieth century. His most recent books include The Russians in Germany: The History of the Soviet Zone of Occupation, 1945-1949 (1995) and Fires of Hatred: Ethnic Cleansing in the 20th Century (2001). Naimark is a member of the editorial boards of several journals, including East European Politics and Societies and Journal of Modern History. In 1995, he was awarded the Officer's Cross of the Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany.