

GEORGE P. SHULTZ

*Thomas W. and Susan B.
Ford Distinguished Fellow*

Expertise: Global political and economic policy

George Shultz has held four cabinet-level posts: U.S. secretary of state, U.S. secretary of the treasury, U.S. secretary of labor, and director of the Office of Management and Budget. He also held the Jack Steele Parker Professorship in International Economics at Stanford University's Graduate School of Business and was president of Bechtel Corporation from 1974 to 1982. The holder of a Ph.D. in industrial economics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, he served on the faculties of MIT and the University of Chicago and as dean of the University of Chicago's Graduate School of Business. He is currently a member of the U.S. Defense Policy Board Advisory Committee. His publications include Economic Policy beyond the Headlines (second edition 1998), which was coauthored with Kenneth Dam, and his best-selling memoir Turmoil and Triumph: My Years as Secretary of State. He was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom and the Seoul Peace Prize and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Philosophical Society. The U.S. Department of State's National Foreign Affairs Training Center was named in his honor in May 2002.