APPENDIX

Quote 1: Denier (Kachi-gumi)’s Appeal
“The Japanese nation certainly believes that the motherland must never be defeated. But… We are awed and sob, knowing the amount of blood the motherland sacrificed. [...] We devotionally follow the imperial subjects’ way”
“Imperial Subjects’ Way,” no.1 (December 1945), 移1 (D3), reel #36, MJE-NDL.

Quote 2: Accepter (Make-gumi)’s Appeal
“The surrender was venerably decided by His Majesty the Emperor. [...] It was His Majesty’s great will that laid down the arms, saving the possibility of national rebuilding just moments before the total eradication of the nation.”
Two Trajectories of Diaspora Engagement

Shibata

Map: Map of São Paulo and its subregions
Figure 1: Cotton Production in Bastos, 1930-1946

* data are missing in 1942 and 1943.
Figure 2: Agricultural revenues in Registro, 1931-1938

* Data are missing in 1932, 1934, 1935, and 1937.
Bibliography

Burajiru Jiho Sha, ed. 1933. Brazilian Almanack. São Paulo: Burajiru Jiho Sha. Available at CENB.

“Imperial Subjects’ Way,” no.1 (December 1945), 移1 (D3), reel #36, MJE-NDL.

Mizuno, Masayuki. 1955. 25 Years of Bastos. São Paulo: manuscript. Available at CENB.

