

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Conventional War Against North Korea

- 1) What are the reasonable conventional military options, if any, that could remove North Korea's offensive capability or its regime?
- 2) What, if anything, does the Korean War teach us about likely outside interventions in any war on the Korean peninsula?
- 3) Does Russia have any significant role to play in defusing the North Korean crisis? If not, why?
- 4) How do Japanese/South Korean/American conventional assets stack up against those of North Korea?
- 5) What advantages does China enjoy in empowering some three decades of North Korean rogue behavior?
