

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The Defense of Europe

1. Will NATO Europe fully partner with the U.S., or continue to downplay military readiness?
2. Will there ever be a pan-European military, and how would such a force affect trans-Atlantic relations?
3. Why would Europe want a new military force when most European countries belong to NATO?
4. Is the idea of a European military aimed at the U.S.?
5. How can countries that cannot meet NATO defense spending requirements possibly fund an entirely new military project?
6. Would a European military alliance without North American involvement be feasible?
