

INDEX

- actuarial system, development of rates within, 17; elimination of government subsidies and, 17; NFIP and, 7
- adverse selection problem, California and Florida homeowners' insurance market and, 26–27; catastrophe insurance and, 26; flood insurance and, 16; mitigation measures and, 27
- American political culture, “negative” and “positive” rights and, 73
- American Red Cross, 9, 35, 96
- Arthashastra* (Kautilya), 41
- Axelrod, Robert, 87
- Bastiat, Frederic, 61–62; observation of human nature by, 75; perception of power by, 74–75
- California Earthquake Authority (CEA), 4, 11; number of policy holders under, 32
- Capital Research Center, 88
- catastrophe insurance, 14; adverse selection problem and, 26; alternatives to, 30; benefits and burdens of, 14–17, 20; coercive redistribution of, 20–21; “deserving uninsured” and “self-insured” and, 30, 32; determination of coverage for, 28; government involvement in, 14, 18–22, 30, 31; migration of population and, 21; mitigation measures and, 28–29; multiperil crop insurance and, 8; privatization of, 24, 28–34; redistribution of risks and costs with, 18; risks with hurricanes and, 24; socialized risk and responsibility and, 20–21; unchosen risks and, 20–21
- catastrophe insurance market, Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund and, 6; Florida Insurance Guaranty Fund and, 6; guaranty fund and, 5; Joint Underwriting Association and, 6; reinsurance and, 5; risks of, 5–6
- central authority, freedom, natural rights, and, 66
- civil society, definition of, 65; preservation of, 76; state of nature vs., 64–68
- classic liberal tradition, 68
- Cleveland, Grover, 45
- coercive redistribution, 20
- collective action problem, definition of, 85; liberty and, 85–86

104 / Index

- competitive politics, media and, 47–49;
 natural disasters and, 48–49
 constitutional relationships, 67 correlated risks, 14–15, 22; catastrophes and, 22–26; private insurance companies and, 15; variance and, 15 credible commitment, problem of, 31– 32, 33
Crises and Leviathan (Higgs), xii
- “deserving uninsured,” 29–30, 32
 direct aid. See direct disaster assistance direct disaster assistance, components of, 12; government and, 8–12 disaster, definition of, 69; state of nature
 and, 69
 “disaster area,” relief aid and, 83 disaster management, politicization of, 50 disaster mitigation, scope of market in, 51–58; state agencies vs. private initiatives for, 51; state intervention
 and, 57
 disaster relief, 62, 68–72, 78; American Red Cross and, 9; in ancient times, 42; community and, 92–93; corruption and mismanagement of, 45;
 democratic governance and, 42; direct aid and, 10; disaster-related spending and, 10–11; erosion of personal responsibility and, 97–98, 100; free society and, 87, 88–89; government
 and, 9, 10, 13–14, 64, 84, 85, 87, 89, 91; immediate aid and, 13; involuntary nature of, 94; Northridge earthquake and, 10; politicization of, 45–46; private sector and, 71; protection of individual rights under, 69–70; repair of government facilities and, 10;
 restrictions on individual rights under,
 70; self-interest vs. altruism and, 92– 93; state allocation of resources for,
 94; state’s coercive means and, 94;
 support for privatization of, 101–2;
 technical questions of, 71–72;
 voluntary assistance and, 101;
 willingness to help, 92–93, 100
 droughts and famines, 37
 Dunlap, Charles, xii
- earthquakes, 10, 38; effects of different types of, 25; fine-grained risk assessments of, 25–26 economic development, increase in population due to, 35; insulation from havoc by, 51–52, 55–56, 57; natural cataclysms and, 36
 emergency assistance, privatization of, 101
 emergency management efforts, narcissism and, 78
 exit barriers, insurance companies and, 19
- Federal Emergency Management
 Agency (FEMA), 9, 10, 59, 70, 81, 82, 83, 100; freedom vs. security under,
 61–62; goal of, 59–60, 101;
 redistribution of insurance and, 20 federal government, expansion of federal programs under, 72; management of emergencies by, 61
 FHCF. See Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund
 FIGA. See Florida Insurance Guaranty Fund
 FIRMs. See Flood Insurance Rate Maps
 First Amendment to U.S. Constitution, xv
 flexibility, principle vs., xv–xvi flood, annual death toll from, 38, 39;
 assessing risk due to, 14–17
 flood insurance, adverse selection problem and, 16; moral hazard problem and, 17–18; privatization of, 24
 Flood Insurance Rate Maps (FIRMs), 6, 7, 16–17, 24, 26; limitation of adverse selection problem and, 27–28 floodplain, 6, 21; associated risks and,
 17; moral hazard problem and, 17

Index / 105

- Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund (FHCF), 5, 6
- Florida Insurance Guaranty Fund (FIGA), 5, 6
- food paradigm, schools paradigm vs., 95–96, 100
- forced redistribution, NFIP and, 19
- Ford, Henry, 53
- free market, food paradigm and, 95–96
- free society, 97; assumptions of, xi–xii; corruption of law of, xviii–xix
- freedom, American view of, 72–74; conflicts within, 76; government authority vs., 80; limits of authority vs., 66–67; narcissism and, 73, 75, 78; Stalin and, 77
- government, aid to citizens by, xii, 13; assumption of risks by, 101; bailout for uninsured business by, 14; catastrophe insurance market and, 1–8; crop insurance and, 12–13; direct disaster assistance and, 8–12; earthquake insurance in California and, 11, 14; economic intervention by, 51; evaluation of, 12–22; expansion of power of, xii–xiii; flood insurance and, 12, 18; homeowners' insurance in Florida and, 12, 14; intervention in insurance market by, 4–6; natural disasters and, xii, 3–4, 9; principles and, xvii–xviii; protection from natural calamity by, 50–51; reduction in scope of, 96; subsidized loans and, 14; temporary powers of, xiii; vulnerability to disasters and, 80
- government and catastrophe insurance, criticism of, 18–22
- government authority, expansion of, 62–64, 79, 81–82; freedom and, 80, 81; human virtue and, 79; protection of individual rights and, 63–64; virtue and, 78–79, 81
- government bureaucracy, criticism of, 84
- government disaster insurance, 85
- government disaster relief, alternatives to, 96; communities and, 94; criticism of, 92; necessity of, 87; recommendations and modifications for, 100–102. See also government emergency management
- government emergency management, 70–71; benefits of, 91; conflicts of, 84–85; efforts of, 78–79; expenditures for, 60; human incentive under, 89–90; liberty vs., 60–61; social consequences of, 62
- government intervention, school paradigm and, 95–96
- government power, precedents and, xii–xiii
- government-provided insurance, coercive redistribution and, 20
- guaranty fund, 5
- Higgs, Robert, xii
- Hobbes, Thomas, freedom vs. limits of authority and, 66–67; protection by government and, 68; social cooperation and, 87; state of nature and, 66
- human individuality and sociality, 67–68
- human nature, empathy and, 76
- hurricanes, effect on population by, 38–39
- ideology, definition of, xiii–xiv
- individual liberty, natural phenomena and, 83
- individual rights, protection of, 76, 78
- individual sovereignty, xii; economic matters and, xvii
- individuality, sociality vs., 68, 74
- insurance, development of, 53; “forceplacing” of, 7; government subsidies and, 99; risk assessment and, 98; state regulation of, 23
- insurance companies, exit barriers and, 19; forced quake coverage in California by, 19
- insurance market, government intervention in, 4–6

106 / Index

- insurance subsidies, artificially reduced risk and, 99–100
- insurance welfare, 30; elimination of, 33–34
- International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction, 35, 52
- International Red Cross, 39
- Interstate Commerce Clause, 23
- Joint Underwriting Association (JUA), 5–6; residual market mechanisms and, 20
- JUA. See Joint Underwriting Association
- Kunreuther, Howard, 27
- Locke, John, 63; freedom vs. limits of authority and, 66–67; protection of individual rights and, 68; view of government by, 65; view of state of nature by, 65–66
- market failure, definition of, 91; justification for state intervention due to, 90
- Marx, Karl, xiii
- McCarran-Ferguson Act, 23
- Mill, John Stuart, xii, 63; freedom and, 67–68; protection of individual rights and, 68
- mitigation measures, adverse selection problem and, 27
- moral hazard problem, 30; donor agencies and, 46; flood insurance and, 17–18; government buyout program and, 18*n*9; insurance premium reductions and, 27; natural disasters and, 45; state-sponsored relief and, 41–42, 46
- multiperil crop insurance, 8
- National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP), 6–8, 12, 14, 17, 99; actuarial rates and, 19; government subsidies for, 18–19, 26; rate structure under, 7–8, 32; redistribution of resources and, 19; U.S. Congress and, 18, 19; “Write-Your-Own” program under, 24
- National Guard, 89–90, 91–92
- natural calamities, perception of, 47; varying response by government to, 50
- natural cataclysms, definition of, 36; economic development and, 36
- natural disaster insurance, state government intervention in, 3–4
- natural disasters, 79, 85; California and Florida and, 1–4; consequences on population from, 37–38, 39; definition of, 36; distorted perception of, 49–51; droughts and famines and, 37–38; earthquakes and, 38; ecological barriers and, 44–45; economic development and, 40, 57–58; economic intervention by government and, 51; financial costs and, 1–2; free society response to, 97; historical trends of, 36–40; impacts of, 35–36; involuntary notion of risks for, 21–22; liberty and policy and, 83–102; mandatory government standards and, 44; mitigation of impact of, 36, 44; moral hazards of, 45; options to predict, prevent, and offset costs from, 36; perception of randomness of, 80; population and, 1; protection against, 36; range of responses to, 36; reducing risks from, 54–55; regional statistical probability of, 98–99; response of the market to, 51–58; restrictions on communication and, 57; role of market and, 35–58; state intervention and, 43–47, 52, 56–57; supplemental appropriations for relief for, 10; technological measures to reduce risk of, 55, 56; tendency to forget incidences of, 36–38
- natural hazards, drought and famine, 40; economic consequences and conditions and, 39–40; financial instruments to deal with, 53–54; government and, 41; perception of

Index / 107

- threats by, 40–41, 41*n*4; rich and poor societies and, 39
- natural rights, 66
- “negative” rights, 68, 73
- NFIP. See National Flood Insurance Program
- Nowak, Martin, 88
- Oliver, Daniel, 88
- O’Rourke, P.J., 59, 81
- political principles, decline and fall of, xiii
- political theory, public policy and, xix
- “positive” rights, 73
- pragmatic flexibility, xv–xvi; principled approach vs., xvi
- price control, disaster mitigation and, 57
- principle, application of, xv; conduct and, xvii–xviii; flexibility vs., xv–xvi; government and, xvii–xviii
- principled approach, pragmatic flexibility vs., xvi; short-term convenience vs., xv
- private catastrophe insurance, adverse selection and, 22, 26–28; conditions of risks for, 27; correlated risks and, 22–26; feasibility of, 22–28; problem of credible commitment and, 31–32
- private initiatives, historical mitigation of risks by, 52–53
- public policy, administration of, xv; government and, xviii; political theory and, xix
- reinsurance, 53
- relief aid, 69; “disaster area” and, 83
- residual market mechanisms, 20
- Ricardo, David, xiii–xiv
- risk, conditions for private insurers and, 27
- rule of law, rule of arbitrary human will vs., xv
- Russia, freedom and, 77; political culture of, 77–78
- schools paradigm, food paradigm vs., 95–96, 100
- Second Amendment to U.S. Constitution, xiii
- “self-insured,” 29–30; removal of subsidies for, 32–33
- Sen, Amartya, 42
- short-term convenience, principled action vs., xv
- Sigmund, Karl, 88
- Small Business Administration (SBA), 10–11
- Smith, Adam, xiii–xiv
- social cooperation, state intervention and, 87–88
- sociality, individuality vs., 68, 74
- Stafford Disaster Relief and Assistance Act of 1988, 10
- state and local government, indemnification by federal government for, 13
- state of nature, 69, 70; civil society vs., 64–68; definition of, 65; Hobbes, Thomas, and, 66; Locke, John, and, 65–66
- state-sponsored charity, distortion of social fabric and, 47
- subsidized insurance rates, NFIP and, 7
- subsidized loans, government and, 14
- Taylor, Michael, 89–90
- “undeserving uninsured,” 32. See also “self-insured”
- United Nations, 35
- United States, political culture of, 76, 81
- United Way, 96
- urbanization, 71
- U.S. Congress, 18
- variance, correlated risks and, 15
- voluntaristic institutions, 61
- World Disaster Reports*, 39