

Index

- Acheson, Dean, 192
 Adishesiah, Malcolm S., 114 adult education: Lincoln School and Hanna's vision of, 153; vocational training as part of, 265–66, 269, 277–78
 African development educational system,
 276–81
 Agency for International Development, 113
 AID (Agency for International Development), 268
Air Affairs magazine, 98
 Alexandria High School, 21–22
 Allen, Ben S., 117
In All Our States (Hanna), 183
 American Association of School
 Administrators, 181
 American Council on Education, 234
The American Elementary School (John Dewey Society), 229
 American Historical Association, 243
In the Americas (Hanna), 183
 Anderson, Ronald Stone, 258
 Andover School, 72
 Andrus, J. Russell, 264
 “Arithmetic Problem Solving: A Study of the Relative Effectiveness of Three Methods of Problem Solving” (Hanna),
 46
 Army Specialized Training Program, 99
 Arnold, Edward, 269
 ASCD (Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development), 7, 234–39
*Assuring Quality for the Social Studies in
 Our Schools* (Hanna), 135, 207
At Home (Hanna), 76, 183, 185, 186
At School (Hanna), 76, 183, 185
- back to basics curriculum: California legislative bills on, 108; post–W.W. II tendency toward, 246
 Bagley, William C., 50, 190, 204
 Barnard, Henry, 145
barrio school (Philippines), 194
 Barry, Mary Elizabeth, 46
 Bartky, A. John, 86 basic human activities curriculum. See student activities curriculum
 Basic Social Studies Program, 184–85
- Benne, Kenneth, 216
 “Between Two Worlds” (At Home), 185
Beyond the Americas (Hanna), 183
 Billings, Neil, 198
 Binational Yugoslav-American Advisory Commission of the U.S. Department of Education's Board of Foreign
 Scholarship, 275
 Black, Fred, 98
 Bolivian sabbatical trip (1940–1941), 251–
 53
 Borra, Juan V., 264
Building America series: focus on Russia issue of, 106–8; Hanna's on international educational use of, 254; “Housing” issue of, 175–76; impact on Hanna by controversy over, 109–11, 153, 192–93, 237, 250, 298, 299–300; introduced to John Dewey Society by Hanna, 228; to meet student activities needs, 187, 295; origins of, 100–101, 232; problem method used by, 176; publishing schedule/organization of, 176–77;
 repackaged as Your America, 108;
 Sargent's attacks against/investigation of, 101–6, 178; similarities to postwar German education, 258; as social critique tool, 174–75, 238, 287; teacher's guides of, 162–63, 176; wide appeal and acceptance of, 177–78
Building Spelling Power (Hanna), 208
 Burleigh, Clara M., 239
 Bush, Vannevar, 92
 Butts, R. Freeman, 79, 273
- Caldwell, Otis, 41
 Caldwell, Robert G., 111, 251
 California: back to basics/dismissal provisions bills passed by, 108; Hanna's social science curriculum in, 167–68; investigation of Building America series in, 101–6, 178
 California Committee on the Scope and Sequences of Major Learnings, 166, 168
 California Department of Supervision and
 Curriculum Development, 105
 California Institute of Technology, 92

- California Journal of Secondary Education*, 166
- California-Pacific Forest Consultants, 117
- California State Curriculum Commission, 101
- California State Emergency Relief Administration, 89
- Campbell, Doak, 233
- Campus Report* (Stanford University), 133
- Carnegie Corporation, 90
- Carr, Edward, 8
- Carr, William, 206
- Castilleja School (Stanford campus), 72
- Caswell, Hollis L.: ASCD membership of, 235; conflict with Hanna over Virginia Study, 52–53, 57; conflict with Hanna over World Book project, 211–13; contribution to SCS by, 231; criticism of Hanna's national curriculum proposal by, 204; expanding environments pattern adopted by, 164; invites Hanna to consult on Virginia Study, 5; as part of Kilpatrick Discussion Group, 216; recommended by Hanna for position, 79; as Spring Conference participant, 226; on weakness with Virginia curriculum, 187, 188–89, 294
- Caswell, Ruth, 52
- CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps), 148, 232
- Centerville* (Hanna), 171, 182
- Central Curriculum Council*, 151
- Charters, W. W., 203, 230
- Chiang Kai-Shek, 25
- child-centered curriculum, 220–21. See also student interests
- Childcraft Books, 79
- Childhood Education* (Hanna), 146, 154, 168, 191
- children. See students
- Childs, John L., 5, 223
- CIAA (Coordinator for Inter-American Affairs), 111–12, 251, 254
- citizenship education: Building America controversy over developing student, 100–111; role of social studies education in, 1, 186; Youth Serves the Community as preparation for, 146–48. See also democracy education
- In City, Town, and Country* (Hanna), 183
- Claremont College, 72
- Clark, John R., 40
- “The Classroom Defense Unit” (Hanna), 156–57
- Clements, Millard, 187
- Coladarci, Arthur, 86, 132
- cold war: Building America controversy during, 106–8, 109–11, 153, 192–93, 237, 250, 298; Hanna's philosophy of democratic education response to, 264–65; interpreting Hanna's political views during, 298–300
- Commission on Resources and Education, 154
- Communist-Socialist Propaganda in American Schools* (booklet, 1953), 110
- community: using common curriculum to build, 201–7; educational control by national vs. local, 159; expanding communities model curriculum on, 184; Hanna's expansion to study of international, 189–97; Hanna's interest in the international, 250; Hanna on ties between school and, 144–60; students as active participants in, 152–53; studies on larger-than-national, 181–82. See also parents
- “The Community School Defined” (Hanna), 144
- The Community School* (Hanna and Naslund), 158
- community schools: criteria for control by, 159–60; Hanna's recommendations for Philippine, 262–68, 295; Hanna's vision of, 158–61, 295; Hanna on ties between school/community leading to, 144–60; tested in the Philippines, 194
- Comparative Education (Stanford University), 77
- Conant, James B., 89, 205
- Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public School (1959), 205–6
- consulting work (Hanna's): in conjunction with Hanna Series, 81; in context of international development education, 278; while at Stanford University, 80–83. See also international development education
- content versus method debate, 185
- Cosmos Club (Washington, D.C.), 97–98
- Cottrell, Donald, 235
- Council on National Defense, 111
- Counts, George S., 5, 47, 174, 219, 220, 223, 227, 228, 250, 299
- Cowley, W. H., 115
- “Creative Realism” (Walcott's senior seminar), 27–28

- Cremin, Lawrence, 3
Cross-Country (Hanna), 182–83
 Crunden, Robert M., 15
 CSSAR (California Society of the Sons of the American Revolution), 101, 107
 Cubberley, Ellwood P., 63, 69, 116
 Cubberley School of Education Building (Stanford University), 116 cultural lag, 163
 Curricula of Modern Elementary School (1936), 76
 The Curriculum and the Changing Economic Life (SCI topic), 231 curriculum design: back to basics, 108, 246; Building America approach to, 100–101; child-centered vs. social reconstructionists, 220–21; comparing social efficiency and progressive, 33–34; developed by Hanna for relocated Japanese-Americans, 93–96; developed by Hanna while at Stanford, 64–68; Education 200F (Teachers College) study of, 5, 49–51; following vs. creating student interests, 43–44; Hanna on content versus method debate over, 185; Hanna on his deficiency in, 34–35; Hanna's application of democratic involvement in, 149–60; Hanna's challenge to NEA for national, 242; Hanna's curriculum focus during, 74–75, 156–57; Hanna's doctorate program emphasis on, 40–46; Hanna's proposed national, 202–7; Hanna's study of international, 193–95; impact of Great Depression on, 140–41, 213, 219; local vs. national control over, 159; philosophic basis for Hanna's work in, 141–42; Rugg's approach to, 51–52; for spelling instruction, 208–10; teacher-proof, 185; Virginia Curriculum Study on, 3, 5, 9, 52–58, 292; W.W. II and decline of progressive, 160–61. See also education; expanding communities curriculum; social science curriculum
Curriculum Development (Caswell), 188
 Curriculum of the Elementary School (1943), 74
 Curriculum Foundation Series, 183–84
The Curriculum Journal (SCS), 231, 232–33 curriculum programs: of Denver Public Schools (1922), 41; Hanna's impression of Lincoln School's, 42–44, 146; of Lincoln School Parents' Recreation Club, 45; Lincoln School's use of progressive, 41; of San Diego public schools, 150–51; weakness of Winfield High School, 38, 39–40; WRA (War Relocation Authority), 93–96. See also Virginia Curriculum Study Curriculum Scope and Sequence Committee (California), 81
 Cushman, C. L., 233
 “Dare Progressive Education Be Progressive?” (Counts speech), 219
Dare the School Build a New Social Order? (Counts), 47, 174
 David Jacks Professor of Higher Education (Stanford University), 115
David's Friends at School (Hanna), 170, 182
 Davidson, William J., 23
 Davis, O. L., 166
 Davis, Paul H., 90, 97, 98
 de Lima, Agnes, 174
Democracy and the Curriculum: The Life and Program of the American School (John Dewey Society), 151–52, 229 democracy education: to combat Philippine communism, 264–65; international education as extension of, 250–51. See also citizenship education developing countries educational systems, 193–97
 “The Development of Democracy” (Report of the U.S. Education Mission to Germany), 256
 Dewey, John, 5, 32, 47, 146, 218, 223–24
 Division of Social and Philosophical Foundations (Teachers College), 49
 Doherty, Celius, 20, 21
 Douglass, Enid, 198
 Douglass, Malcolm, 80, 81, 82, 83, 86, 198–99
 Drummond, Harold, 78–79, 80, 186
 “Dusty Russell” (Robert Hanna), 72
 East Asian curriculum systems, 194–95
 ECAFE (UN Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East), 273, 275
 Education 200F course (Teachers College), 5, 49–51, 63–64, 217
 Education 256 course (Stanford University), 64–65
 Education 299b course (Stanford University), 93–94
 Education 331 course (Stanford University), 64–65

- education: citizenship, 1, 100–111, 146–48, 183, 186; democracy, 250–51, 264–65; Hanna and mathematics, 207–8; Hanna’s vision of, 153, 265–66, 269, 277–78; in order to remain free, 192; philosophy of PEA on, 217–25; social activism, 143–44, 155. See also curriculum design; expanding communities curriculum; international development education
- Education for All American Children* (1948), 158
- Educational Leadership* (ASCD), 182, 236, 241, 243
- Educational Method* (NEA), 236
- “Education for the Larger Community” (Hanna), 236
- Education and Society Series, 134–35
- “The Education System of the Colony of Fiji” (Mann), 68
- Engelhardt, Nickolaus, 41–42
- ERA (Education and Religious Affairs) (SHAEF), 255
- Evans, Ronald W., 160
- Everyday Life Stories Series, 182–84
- The Everyday Life Stories Series program, 170
- expanding communities curriculum: as bridge between two educational trends, 33–34; criticism of, 293–94; extended to include international community, 189–97; Hanna Social Studies Series development of, 162–63, 293; Hanna’s pioneering development of, 31–32; implemented in curriculum design for WRA, 94–96; as organizing principle in UNESCO teaching guides, 287; refinement of Hanna’s vision of, 181–89; widespread influence of, 214. See also social science curriculum
- expanding environments patterns, 164
- Experimental Study of Basic Hypotheses in Curriculum Development (SCS), 233
- Fellenberg, Phillip Emanuel von, 144–45
- Field Enterprise Corporation, 211
- First Steps, A Speller for Beginners* (Hanna), 208
- Flexner, Abraham, 41
- Florida State University, 79
- Foerster, Leona M., 189
- Foley, Douglas, 270, 271–72
- Folk High Schools (Denmark), 145
- Ford, Edsel, 98
- Ford Foundation, 98
- Ford, William, 98
- Fordyce, Philip, 79
- Foster, Donald, 79–80, 83, 131
- The Foundations of Spelling and Its Teaching* (Hanna), 209
- Freeman, Myrna B. Martindale, 115–16
- Frenchman Hills site (Hanna family home), 120–21
- Frontiers of Democracy* (Freedom Number Nine article), 155
- Fundamentalist movement, 13
- Gans, Roma, 223
- Gazos Creek Tree Farm, 117–18
- General Education Board, 240
- “Generalizations in the Social Studies” (Hanna and Lee), 244
- George Peabody College for Teachers (Tennessee), 52, 79
- German educational study (post-World War II), 255–58
- Gill, Martin, 2, 82, 212
- Glenwood High School, 20, 21
- Goodlad, John, 293
- government-university relationship: Hanna on experiences in, 111; during Hanna’s curriculum design for WRA, 93–96; Hanna’s lobbying for, 97–100; Hanna’s understanding of, 99–100; Stanford’s pursuit of, 90–93, 96–100; university training programs for military and, 98–99. See also United States
- Graham, Patricia, 217, 225, 237, 297
- Gray, William S., 169–70
- Great Depression: concerns over curriculum in context of, 219; impact on Stanford funding by, 89; influence on Hanna’s thinking by, 140–41, 213, 234, 240–41; Marxian interpretations of, 47, 51; Stanford student demographics during, 62–63
- Greater Hamline Liner* (Hamline’s yearbook), 25–26
- Griffin, W. F., 39
- Gross, Richard, 71, 72, 75, 79, 83, 85, 87, 88, 189, 199, 244
- Hamline’s Young Republicans Club, 24
- Hamline University, 22, 23–28, 118, 251, 291
- Hand, Harold, 58, 64, 65, 78, 226, 235
- Hanna, Aurelia T. Klipper (second wife), 135–36, 205

- Hanna Collection (Hoover Institution): establishment of, 6, 132–33; growth under Hanna's curatorship, 134–35
- Hanna, Emily (aunt), 25
- Hanna, Emily (daughter), 71, 72
- Hanna Family English Chair (Castilleja School), 72
- Hanna, Geneva R. (sister), 18, 239
- Hanna, George Archibald (father), 4, 11, 13–14
- Hanna, George Washington (great-grandfather), 12
- Hanna-Honeycomb House (family home):
 as architectural achievement, 126–27; building of, 71, 121–25; conflict between Hannas and Stanford over, 130–33; donated to Stanford as guest residence, 128–30; Hannas' attachment to, 119–21, 125–28; Hanna Series royalties used to build, 125, 172, 214; raising funds to support maintenance of, 129–30
- Hanna, Jean Shuman (wife): advises Paul to stay at Stanford, 69–70; arithmetic instruction written by Paul and, 139, 209–10; declining health and death of, 135; family life of Paul and, 71–73; foundation founded by Paul and, 6; marriage between Paul and, 38–39; on memories of their home, 126; moves to California with Paul, 58–59, 62; romance between Paul and, 25, 26; spelling textbooks authored by Paul and, 162; timberland conservation by, 116–18; travels to postwar Germany with Paul, 257
- Hanna, John (son), 14, 71, 72–73, 121, 125, 126
- Hanna, Mary Melrose, 12
- Hanna, Paul Robert: ability to create social networks by, 78–80, 282–83; accomplishments/legacy left by, 1–4, 7–8, 136–37, 246–47, 286–89, 291–302; adolescent years of, 19–22; building of home as reflection of, 127–28; childhood influences on, 11–18, 28–29; confused with leftist newspaperman, 269; damage to friendship between Caswell and, 211–13; dissertation study on arithmetic problem-solving, 207–8; education of, 4–5; family life of Jean and, 71–73; interpreting political views of, 298–300; last years of, 133–37; Latin American experience during sabbatical by, 251–52; love of learning/achievement traits of, 16–17; marriage of, 38–39; move to California by, 58–59, 62, 245; neglect of contributions by, 3–4, 296–98; philanthropic activities of, 115–18; as pragmatist, 299–300; self-improvement course taken by, 19; as social frontiersman, 298, 299; timberland conservation by, 116–18; travels to postwar Germany and Japan by, 255–59; undergraduate years of, 22, 23–28; work with Philippine educational system by, 193–94, 259–72. See also Hanna textbook writing; professional education organizations; Stanford University
- Hanna, Philip (uncle), 25
- Hanna, Regula Figi (mother), 4, 11–12, 14, 16, 28
- Hanna, Richard, 283
- Hanna, Robert (son), 71, 72, 126
- Hanna, Russell G. (brother), 18
- Hanna's Christmas tree farm, 81
- Hanna Series (Scott, Foresman series):
Centerville, 171, 182; consulting work done in conjunction with, 81; contract reflecting declining influence for, 201; contract to begin the, 169–70; Curriculum Foundation Series version of, 183–84; David's Friends at School, 170, 182; differences between early and later, 197–201; financial and professional success of, 125, 172–73, 186, 214; focus on social, economic, political institutions, 162, 292–93; Hanna's promotional activities for, 294; inclusion of social scientists in writing of, 171–72, 200–201; Investigating Man's World, 188, 198, 199–201; Making the Goods We Need, 179–80; Marketing the Things We Use, 180–81; Peter's Family, 170; Pioneering in Ten Communities, 171; Susan's Neighbors at Work, 170, 182; teacher instruction in, 180–81; This Useful World, 79; Without Machinery, 171–72, 182. See also expanding communities curriculum; social science curriculum
- Hanna textbook writing: Basic Social Studies Program, 184–85; changes in later, 197–201; criticisms of, 186–89; Everyday Life Stories series and, 182–84; expanding communities model refined during, 181–89; on Houghton-Mifflin spellers, 208–10; promoting common curriculum to build community, 201–7; on purpose of social studies, 140–44; on

- school in its community, 144–60;
summarizing accomplishments of, 213–14; variety and depth of, 139–40; World Book Encyclopedia project, 57, 198, 210–13; See also Building America series; Hanna Series (Scott, Foresman series)
- Hanna, Wesley (grandfather), 12
- Harap, Henry, 46, 226, 227, 230
- Harris, William T., 145
- Harvard University: Hanna's summer course at, 75–76; NDRC-OSRD contracts awarded to, 92; proposed national curriculum presented at, 76
- Hearst, William Randolph, 104
- Heffernan, Helen, 235
- Hello, David* (Hanna), 182
- Henry, David D., 203
- Hillegas, Milo B., 40
- Historical Outlook* (NCSS), 243
- "History of a Civic Education Project Implementing the Social-Problems Technique of Instruction" (Newman), 110
- History Matters!* (newsletter), 293
- Hoover, Herbert, 55, 62, 89, 97
- Hoover Institution: growth under Hanna's curatorship, 134–35; Hanna Collection established at, 6, 132–33; Hanna's political conservatism and association with, 298
- Hopkins, L. Thomas, 44
- Houghton-Mifflin, 79
- Houghton-Mifflin spellers (Hanna), 208–9
- "Housing" (Building America), 175–76
- Howard, Bailey K., 211
- Hullfish, Gordon, 230
- "Improvement of Education for Democracy" (NEA), 241
- Individual Study in Elementary Curriculum and Instruction, 74
- Individual Study in Elementary Curriculum, Instruction, and Supervision, 74
- industrial economy: Hanna on loss connection of worker in, 155–56; student curriculum on modern, 142–43
- In the Neighborhood* (Hanna), 76
- "Institute for Individual and Community Development" (Hanna), 159
- International Conference on the World Crisis in Education (1967), 281–82
- International Cooperation Administration, 268
- international development education: accomplishments of Hanna's second career in, 286–89; Hanna's growing involvement in, 111–14, 249–50, 251–54; Hanna on relevance of national goals with, 277; Hanna sent on CIAA fact-finding missions on, 111–12; Hanna's experience with postwar Germany and Japan, 255–59; Hanna's report on Yugoslavian and African, 275–81; Hanna's view of educational consulting in context of, 278; Hanna's work in the Philippines on, 193–94, 259–72; Hanna's work in Southeast Asian, 272–75; influence of Stanford International Development Education Center on, 6, 283–86; International Conference (1967) on, 281–82; Stanford's increasing role in, 112–14; vocational training as part of, 265–66, 269, 277–78. See also education
- International Development Education Seminar (Stanford University), 77
- International Volunteer Development Corps (proposal), 285–86
- Investigating Man's World* (Hanna), 188, 198–201
- Jacks, Lee L., 115
- Jacks, Margaret, 115
- James, H. Thomas, 131
- James, Thomas, 96
- Japanese educational study (postwar), 258–59
- John Dewey Society, 7, 217, 227–30, 232, 296–97
- Johnson, Lyndon, 281
- Johnston, Harry, 169
- Joint Congressional Committee on Education to the Congress of the Philippines (1951), 262–63
- Kahn Lectures (Princeton University), 119
- Kandell, Isaac, 50
- Kefauver, Grayson, 58, 63, 69, 120
- Kerfoot, Samuel F., 20, 22, 23, 24, 291
- Key, V. O., Jr., 203
- Kilpatrick discussion group (Teachers College), 47–49, 216–17
- Kilpatrick, William Heard, 5, 32, 46–47, 146, 220, 222, 227
- King, Irving, 145
- King, Richard, 79
- Kliebard, Herbert, 3

- Klipper, Aurelia T. (second wife), 135–36, 205
 Kohn, Clyde, 182
 Krug, Edward A., 180
- larger-than-national communities, 181–82
 Latin American sabbatical trip (1940–1941), 251–52
 Lee, John R., 244
 Lee L. Jacks Chair of Child Education (Stanford University), 115
 Leonard, J. Paul, 210, 235
 LeRiche, Leo W., 164
 Lincoln School: benefits of Hanna's time at, 45–46; Hanna's impression of curriculum of, 42–44, 146; Hanna's vision of adult education from, 153; organization of, 41
 Lincoln School Curriculum Research Studies, 46
 Lincoln School Parents' Recreation Club, 45
 Livingston, Thomas B., 206
 Lower Mekong River Development Project, 273–75, 286
 Ludgin, Donald, 212
 Lyell, Charles, 12
 Lyman, Richard, 128
- Madison Conference of 1892, 16
Making the Goods We Need (Hanna), 179–80
 Manalang, Prishla S., 270, 271
 Mann, Cecil W., 68
Marketing the Things We Use (Hanna and Krug), 180–81
 Martindale, John Howard, 115 mathematics education, 207–8
 McKellar, Donald, 211, 212
 McKenzie, Gary R., 160
 McMurry, Charles, 56, 164
 mechanical device invention (Hanna), 41
 Mekong River Project, 273–75, 286
 Memorial Church organ renovation, 116
 Menlo School, 72
 Miel, Alice, 216, 297
 Miller, Norman, 2
 MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology), 92
Modern Architecture (Wright), 119
 Moore, Frank J., 132
 Moore, James T., Jr., 209
 MSA (Mutual Security Agency), 263, 268
- Myrna B. Freeman Scholarship Fund (Stanford University), 116
- Naslund, Robert A., 144
The Nation, 220
 National Advisory Committee on Aeronautics, 90
 National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, 237 national curriculum: Hanna's challenge to NEA to promote, 242; Hanna's National Curriculum Center proposal for, 202–7
 "A National Curriculum Center: Threat or Promise?" (Hanna), 76
 National Curriculum Center proposal, 202–7
National Resources Development Report (1942), 156
 National Resources Planning Board, 91, 154, 155
 The National Society of Curriculum Workers, 230
 National Society for the Study of Education, 79, 158
The Nation's Schools, 202, 203
 Natural Science in the Elementary and Junior High School Curriculum (Stanford University course), 67
 NCSS (National Council for the Social Studies), 243–44
 NDRC (National Defense Research Council) contracts, 92, 98
 NEA (Commission on Educating for American Citizenship), 241
 NEA Department of Elementary School Principals, 233
 NEA Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association, 230
 NEA Department of Supervision and Curriculum Development, 234
 NEA Department of Supervisors and Instruction, 227, 232
 NEA National Council on Childhood Education, 233
 NEA (National Education Association), 154, 190, 217, 231, 235, 239–43
 NEA (National Education Association) speech (Hanna), 191–92
 NEA/PEA Joint Commission on Resources and Education, 240
 "Needed Research on Textbooks" (Hanna), 199
In the Neighborhood (Hanna), 183
New Centerville (Hanna), 182

- The Newlon-Harap Luncheon of Liberals in Education, 228
- Newlon, Jesse: advise on dealing with criticism by, 300; mentoring of Hanna by, 42, 44, 45–46, 68, 208, 216; on PEA resolutions, 223; role in launching John Dewey Society, 227, 228; spelling books co-authored with Hanna, 139, 162; as Teachers College faculty member, 41–42
- Newman, Robert E., 2, 79, 110
- New York Home Economics Association speech (Hanna, 1932), 140
- Nineteenth Yearbook of the California Elementary School Principals Association*, 157
- Ninth Yearbook of the National Council for the Social Studies, 149
- Nissan Motor Corporation, 129–30
- Nixon, Richard, 298
- Noonan, Richard, 233
- NYA (National Youth Administration), 148
- Odell, William, 117
- Office of the Coordinator for Inter-American Affairs, 252
- OMGUS (Office of Military Government-U.S.), 113, 256, 257
- Operations Research Office (Johns Hopkins University), 110
- OSRD (Office of Scientific Research and Development), 92
- parents: Everyday Life Stories series activities for, 183; Hanna's vision of partnership of school with, 152. See also community; students
- Parker, Francis W., 145
- Paul and Jean Hanna Archival Collection on the Role of Education in Twentieth-Century Society at the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace at Stanford University, 6, 132–33, 134–35
- Peace Corps, 285–86
- PEA. See Progressive Education Association (PEA)
- Perkins, James A., 282
- Peter's Family* (Hanna), 170, 182
- Philippine Community School Training Center, 268
- Philippine Department of Education–Stanford University contract (1956), 268–69
- Philippine educational system: curriculum to combat communist ideologies in, 264; Hanna's curriculum design suggestions for, 261–62; Hanna's promotion of vocational training in, 265–66, 269; Hanna's recommendations for community schools in, 262–68, 295; Hanna's study of, 193–94, 259–61; outcome of UNESCO experience with, 269–72
- Philippine Normal College, 268
- Pierce-Mitchell townhouse development (Stanford University), 135
- Pioneering in Ten Communities* (Hanna), 171
- Po, Dison, 25, 251
- Pope, George, 118
- Power to Spell* (Hanna), 208
- "Practicing Citizenship" (NEA), 241
- problem method, 176
- Problems of Scope and Sequence of the Curriculum in Relation to Psychology, Philosophy, and Social Life, 232
- professional education organizations: Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, 7, 234–39; Hanna's involvement in, 215, 245–47; John Dewey Society, 7, 217, 227–30, 232, 296–97; NCSS (National Council for the Social Studies), 243–44; NEA (National Education Association), 154, 190, 217, 231, 235, 239–43; PEA (Professional Education Association), 217–25; Society for Curriculum Study, 230–34; Spring Conference, 225–30
- progressive curriculum: as based on needs of children, 33–34; Building America controversy over, 101–2; impact of W.W. II on decline of, 160–61; Lincoln School's use of, 41; romantics vs. realists schools of, 175
- Progressive Education*, 163, 175
- Progressive Education Association (PEA): child-centered vs. social reconstructionists within, 220–22; Dewey's statement on focus of, 218–19; growing academia interest in, 217–18; Hanna on ASCD as replacing, 238–39; Hanna social meliorists/social reconstructionists in, 143; Hanna's role in addressing philosophical issues of, 154, 221–25; opposition to Hanna's emphasis by, 7; resolutions committee of, 223, 224–25
- Progressive Education from Arcady to Academe* (Graham), 217

Index

345

- Progressive Education* (journal), 217
Project Method, 146
- Quillen, I. James, 75, 77, 117, 181, 205, 235
- Radio Research Laboratory (Harvard University), 93
R.C. Barnum Company (Cleveland), 24
realist progressives, 175
Recent Social Trends and Recent Economic Trends (Hoover), 55
Redefer, Frederick, 216, 223, 226
Red-ucators at University of California, Stanford University, California Institute of Technology (pamphlet, 1950), 106
The Relation of the Curriculum to the Present Economic Crisis (SCS theme), 230
Report of the U.S. Education Mission to Germany (1946), 256
Resolution committee (PEA), 223, 224–25
The Responsibility of Education for Social Reconstruction (PEA advisory board topic, 1932), 219–20 revolutionary writings study, 47–48
Rizal, Jose, 266
Rockefeller Foundation, 90
Rockefeller, Nelson, 111, 251
romantic progressives, 175
Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, 62, 89, 111
Roosevelt, Theodore, Jr., 267
Rooze, Gene E., 189
Roth, Almon, 120, 123–24
Roxas, Manuel A., 267
Royster, Wallace, 20
Rugg, Harold: attacks on textbooks by, 103, 180; criticism of national curriculum proposal by, 204; Hanna's help in organizing Far East trip by, 282; influence on Hanna by, 51–52, 216; John Dewey Society yearbook edited by, 229; role in launching John Dewey Society, 227, 228; on "sin" of academic segregation, 49; as Spring Conference participant, 226; work on Lincoln School curriculum by, 42, 43
Russell, William F., 34, 47, 68, 70, 82, 83
Russia (Building America issue), 106–8
Rusteika, George, 74, 80–81, 86
- San Diego public schools, 150–51
Santa Barbara city schools, 169
Santa Barbara Study (1935), 81
- Sargent, Aaron M., 101–2, 107–8, 109
Saxe, David Warren, 174
Saylor, J. Galen, 235
"scholar-doer" ideal, 284–85
"A School for the Community" (Hanna), 262–63
"The School and Its Community" (Hanna), 158
"The School Looking Forward" (Hanna), 229 schools: as agent for social activism, 143–44; Hanna's vision of partnership of home with, 152; Hanna on ties between community and, 144–60; influences on Hanna regarding role of, 46–52; national vs. local control over, 159; as preparing students for future, 145. See also teachers
The School and Society (Dewey), 146
School and Society (Hanna), 190
Scott, Foresman series. See Hanna Series (Scott, Foresman series)
Scott, Willis, 69, 173
SEAMEO (Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization), 274, 275
Sears, Jesse B., 58–59
Seminar on Civic Learning for Teachers, 135
Seminar in Comparative and Overseas Education (Stanford University), 77
Seminar in Elementary School Administration (Stanford University), 67
Seminar in Elementary School Curriculum (Stanford University), 67
"The Seven Circles of Civic Responsibility" (NEA), 241
SHAEF (Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Force), 255
Shaftel, Fannie, 85
Shelley, Bruce L., 13
Shuman, Jean. See Hanna, Jean Shuman (wife)
Shuman, Lula, 71
SIDECE (Stanford International Development Education Center): Hanna's purpose in founding of, 84, 272; identity/mission confusion in, 132; international development education expanded through, 113–14, 283–86, 287–88; role of social scientists in work of, 130–31; "scholar-doer" ideal of, 284–85
Signal Corps, 99
Silent Reading to the Upper Elementary

- and Secondary Schools (Stanford University course), 67
- Simpson, Roy E., 110
- social activism: Hanna on teacher's role in, 155; importance of teaching, 143-44
- "Social Change and Education" (NEA), 241
- social education, 168-69
- "Social Education through Cooperative Community Services" (Hanna), 244
- social efficiency curriculum, as based on needs of society, 33
- Social Frontier* (journal), 48-49, 246, 299
- social functions curriculum: elementary school grades study of, 165; integrated with student interests, 165-66; Virginia Study and Hanna's, 164, 292-93
- Social Gospel movement, 13
- social problems approach: Building America use of, 100-101; California legislation limiting use of, 108
- social reconstructionist curriculum, 220
- social science curriculum: building community through use of common, 201-7; citizenship and role of, 1, 186; criticism of Hanna's design for, 186-89, 293-94; current state/unresolved issues of, 300-302; designed to alleviate cultural lag, 163; distinction between social education and, 168-69; Education and Society Series, 134-35; as expression of socioeconomic evolution of man, 167; Hanna on modern industrial economics as part of, 142-43; Hanna's attempt to integrate, 55-56, 258-59; Hanna-Schaftel conflict over, 85-86; Hanna's contributions to, 1-3; Hanna's development of California, 167-68; Hanna's inclusion of social scientists in, 171-72, 200-201; Hanna on social critique through, 173-81; increase of Hanna's international perspectives in, 288-89; National Curriculum Center proposal for, 202-7; neglect of Hanna's contributions to, 3-4, 296-98; purpose of, 140-44; resistance of colleagues to Hanna's, 84-86; using student activities, 146, 150-51, 157-58, 169, 170-71, 177; Virginia Study impact on Hanna's social functions, 164, 292; Youth Serves the Community used in, 146-48; See also Building America Series; curriculum design; expanding communities curriculum; Hanna Series (Scott, Foresman series)
- Social Studies: Curriculum in the Elementary School (Harvard University), 75-76
- Social Studies Committee of the Committee on the Reorganization of Secondary Education, 174
- "Social Studies Curriculum" (NEA), 241
- social studies textbooks. See Hanna, textbook writing
- society: Building America as tool for social critique of, 238, 287; Hanna's critique on disintegration of home and, 141; Hanna's study of revolutionary writings on, 47-49; Hanna's vision of, 301-2; Hanna on textbooks used for social critique of, 173-81; influences on Hanna regarding school role in, 46-52; schools as agent for social activism in, 143-44; social efficiency curriculum based on needs of, 33; WRA curriculum's goal for return to postwar, 95-96
- Society-Child-Curriculum* (Hanna), 76
- Society for Curriculum Study's Committee on State-Wide Programs of Curriculum Revision, 166
- Society for Curriculum Study (SCS), 2, 100, 174, 177, 217, 230-34
- Someday Soon* (Hanna), 182
- Southall, Maycie K., 297
- Southeast Asian development education, 272-75
- Sowards, Wesley, 157
- Special Committee to Study Peace Corps/University Relations, 285-86
- Special Method in History* (McMurry), 56
- spelling instruction, 208-10
- Sperry Gyroscope Company, 90
- Spring Conference of Education, 217, 225-30
- Stanford Committee on University Services, 91, 93
- Stanford Pacific Institute, 112-13
- Stanford's Cubberley Conference (1964), 84
- Stanford University: attended by John Hanna, 73; contract signed with Philippine Department of Education (1956), 268-69; Education 256/331 courses at, 64-65; focus of career at, 61-62; Hanna and deletion of elementary education at, 87-88; Hanna family home donated to, 128-33; Hanna joins faculty of, 58-59; Hanna's consulting work while at, 80-83; Hanna's early seminar

- style teaching at, 63–68; Hanna's focus during war years, 74–75; Hanna's fund-raising for, 88–100; Hanna's later career at, 73–83; Hanna's philanthropic activities on behalf of, 115–18; Hanna's relationship with colleagues at, 83–88; Hanna's salary dispute with, 86–87; increasing international education role for, 112–14; industrial relationships formed by, 89–90; military training programs at, 98–99; mixed reputation (1930s) of, 62–63; relations between Hanna and students of, 78–81, 82–83; turns down Teachers College position to stay at, 68–71; university-government relations pursued by, 90–93, 96–100; W.W. II as philosophical watershed for, 91–93. See also SIDECE (Stanford International Development Education Center)
- Stanford University Services, 98
- Stone Foundation, 274–75
- Stratemeyer, Florence, 216
- Strayer, George, 33, 34–35, 41, 52
- student activities curriculum: Building America developed for, 187; Curriculum Foundation Series refinement of, 184; Hanna on benefits of using, 146, 169, 177; Hanna's design for basic human, 170–71; promoting democratic involvement through, 150–51, 157–58
- student interests: curriculum using activities to stimulate, 146; Hanna's attempts to integrate social-needs with, 85; planning curriculum following or creating, 43–44; progressive curriculum based on, 33–34; social functions curriculum integrated with, 165–66; Virginia Study findings on, 54–55, 163–64, 292
- students: as active participants in community, 152–53; expanding environments patterns and learning by, 164; Hanna's findings on mathematic education for, 207–8; Hanna's spelling instruction for, 208–10; school as agent for social activism by, 143–44; school role in preparing for future of, 145; suggestions on war effort service by, 154–55, 156–57; taught about modern industrial economics, 142–43; teaching citizenship skills to, 1, 100–111, 146–48, 186. See also parents
- Susan's Neighbors at Work* (Hanna), 170, 182
- Swain, Robert, 89
- Taba, Hilda, 215–16, 235
- Tanner, Daniel, 3, 4, 237–38
- Tanner, Laurel, 3
- Taylor, Charles, 118
- teacher-proof curriculum materials, 185, 202
- teachers: as agents of change, 101; Building America Series guides for, 162–63, 176; consulting work by higher education, 80–81; Everyday Life Stories Series activities for, 183; Hanna on community activism by, 155; Hanna Series instructions for, 180–81; Hanna on student activities and role of, 170–71; NEA's support of collective bargaining rights for, 242–43; Virginia Study's innovative use of, 53; voluntary study to increase learning by, 150. See also schools
- Teachers College (Columbia University): discussions on school's role in society in, 46–47; early years at, 32–35; Education 200F course of, 5, 49–51, 63–64, 217; Hanna's arrival (1924) to, 31–32; Hanna's doctorate program (1927) at, 40–46; as influence on Hanna's teaching, 64–66, 143, 215–16; Kilpatrick discussion group of, 47–49, 216–17; mechanical device developed while at, 41; merger of six departments into one at, 49; student population of, 32–33; turns down head elementary education position (1938) at, 68–71
- Teaching Social Studies Skills* (Chaplin and Gross), 187
- technological progress: Hanna on challenge of, 140; on teaching students about production and, 142–43; Without Machinery and Pioneering in Ten Communities on, 171–72
- Tenney, Jack B., 105
- Terman, Frederick, 89, 93, 97
- Terman, Lewis M., 106
- Textor, Robert, 270
- Thomas, Mary Jacks, 115
- Time* magazine, 97, 186
- The Tournament* (West Winfield yearbook), 36, 37, 38, 39
- Tresidder, Donald, 91–92, 99
- Trillingham, C. C., 203
- Truman, Harry S., 264

- Tugwell, Rexford, 5, 47
 Tule Lake Center (WRA), 94–96
 Turner, Harold P., 122
 Turrentine, Evelyn Almack, 116
 Tyack, David, 3
 Tyler, Ralph, 205
- UNESCO Department of Education, 273
 UNESCO's Training Center, 271
 UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization), 6, 114, 259–60, 263, 268, 270, 287
 United Nations, 197
 United States: Hanna on international education aide by, 254; Hanna on state of aesthetic culture in the, 141–42; study of Philippine educational system sponsored by, 193–94, 259–73; study of postwar German/Japanese education by, 255–59. See also government-university relationship
 University of California, 92
 “The University and the Government” (Hanna), 100
 University of Philippines, 113
 Upton, Clifford B., 40
This Useful World (Hanna), 179
- Van Til, William, 216, 226, 235, 238
 Virginia Curriculum Study: Caswell's criticism of, 187, 188–89, 294; Caswell's role in, 52–53, 57; child interest findings of, 54–55, 163–64; Hanna's version of, 53–58; innovative role of teachers in, 53; integrated approach to subject matter theme in, 165–66; Progressive Education (1934) report on, 163–64; social function curriculum developed from, 164, 292–93
 vocational training: Hanna on benefits of, 277–78; Hanna's promotion of Philippines, 265–66, 269
- Walcott, Gregory D., 27, 32, 118
 Washington State University, 58
 Waterloo (Hanna homestead), 12
 Weekly Reader Magazine, 79
 Wesley, Edgar, 80
 “Whose One World?” (Hanna), 236
Who's Who (Latin American edition), 112
- Wilbur, Ray Lyman, 58, 69, 89, 90, 92, 109, 120, 122–23, 300
 Williams, Forbes, 73, 78, 80, 83, 84
 Willis, Bailey, 124
 Winfield High School: graduating class of 1926 of, 36; Hanna's curriculum concepts introduced to, 38; Hanna's teaching experience in, 36–40; neglect of student interests in, 35; weakness of curriculum at, 38, 39–40
Without Machinery (Hanna), 171–72, 182
 W. K. Kellogg Foundation Advisory Committee on Education, 114
 Women's Army Corps, 99
Wonder Flights of Long Ago (Newlon), 45–46
Words in Your Language (Hanna), 208
World Book Encyclopedia project, 57, 198, 210–13
 World Champion Auto Daredevils (traveling stunt show), 72
 “The World in Our Time Is One Community” (Hanna), 158
 World War II era: Hanna's curriculum focus during, 74–75, 156–57, 185–86, 189–90; Hanna's curriculum for Japanese-American children during, 93–96; Hanna on student war efforts during, 154–55; philosophical watershed for Stanford during, 91–93
 WRA (War Relocation Authority) curriculum program: eight basic human activities included in, 94–95; goal of, 95–96; Hanna's offer to design, 93–94; mixed outcome of, 96; two major divisions within, 95
 Wright, Frank Lloyd, 70, 119–20, 121–22, 123–24, 141
- Your America* (repackaged Building America), 108
 “Youth Education Today” (NEA), 241
Youth Serves the Community (Hanna), 146–47, 148, 153–54, 158, 241
- Zirbes, Laura, 223
 Zook, George, 255
 Zook Report (1946), 255–56