Index

Alarcon, Fabian, 3
anchor countries, xviii, 12–15, 16, 17
Argentina, 59; U.S. monetary policy’s effect on, 63–65
Australia, 60, 65
banks, 44; bankruptcy of, 43, 45, 69, 70; World Bank, 67
bank, central. See central bank
Bolivar, Simon, 2
Borenzstein, Eduardo, xvii
Broda, Christian, xvii
Bucaram, Abdala, 2
Calvo, Guillermo, xvii, 7, 51
Calvo-Reinhart effect, 53
Canada, 60, 65, 77
Cavallo, Domingo, 2
Central America, 18
central bank, 44, 46, 50, 58; distortions eliminated by, 80; independence of, 77; monitoring inflation, 77; reform of,
78; spillover effects of, 78, 79, 80;
trade shocks’ impact on, 72
Cespedes, Luis, xvi
CFA Franc zone, xviii, 22
Chang, Robert, xvi
China, 11
compensation agreements, 15, 16 creditors, 8; private sector, 8; IMF coercion of, 9
currency, collapse of, 59; crisis, 39, 42, 59; devaluation of, xxi; floating, 40;
fluctuation of, 41; foreign, 50; future of, 40; mismatches of, 42; stabilization of, 67
currency areas, 11, 19, 26; border effect on, 28; East Caribbean, xviii, 22;
optimum, xvii
currency boards, 31, 39, 57, 59, 60, 63, 71; adoption of, 43; long-term growth increased by, 31
currency unions, xix, 12, 24, 31; consumption insurance affected by, 28, 29; cost-benefit analysis of, 12;
countries that benefit from, 17; desired sizes of, xv; diverting trade, 33; currency unions (continued)
currency unions are characterized by, 23; free trade areas in, 33; geographical effects on, 36, 37; high inflation eliminated by, 27; home bias effect on, 29, 33; income affected by, 35; international transactions in, 22, 28; integration with, 29; long-term effects of, 36; member country characteristics, 23, 24; model of, 17, 18; nominal exchange rates fixed by, 26, 27; non-expansionary monetary policy commitment in, 31; real exchange rate stability affected by, 26; regional integration affected by, 19; in small countries, 18; specialization of, 24; standard deviation in, 27; trade within, 25 debt, 42, 72; denomination of, 72; of Ecuador, 8; emerging market, 60, 62; external, 62; foreign exchange-denominated, 42; service, 71 dollarization, xvii, xix, 9, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17, 31, 41, 57; benefits of, 39; deposit, 42; of Ecuador, xx, xxi, 1, 7, 9, 10; full, 45, 47; integration, 21; lender-of-last-resort capabilities affected by, 43–45; of liabilities, 42, 43, 69, 70, 73; loss of independence caused by, 14; misconceptions about, 42; partial, 42, 43; raising income, 36; success of, xxi; domestic currency, xv; national pride of, xv; depreciation of, 63 Duran Ballen, Sixto, 2

economic integration, 21; “border effect” on, 22; co-movement of GDP, 27; regional political integration linked to, 21 economic reform, of Ecuador, 4–10
Ecuador, 12; dollarization of, xx, xxi, 1, 7, 9, 10, 40, 49; economic history of, 1–5; economic reform of, 4–9; GDP of, 2–5; government of, 2, 3, 4; IMF involvement with, 4–8; investment in, 3; U.S. trade with, 36
El Loco. See Bolivar, Simon
El Salvador, xxi; exchange rates of, 36
Emerging Markets, 43, 45, 67; economies of, 57; Emerging Markets Bond Index, 62, 66; monetary independence in, 57–66; shocks’ effect in, 70; sudden stop problem in, 45, 46
Engel, Charles, xix
England, 77
Euro, 79; adoption of, xix, 36
European Central Bank, 16
European Monetary Union, 37 exchange rates, 26, 53; area, 26; bilateral, 32; countercyclical, xvi, 69, 73; depreciation of, 59, 67; econometric system, 62; economies insulated by, 56; of Ecuador, 4, 5, 7; emerging market, 70; financial variables of, 73; fixed, xv, 13, 39, 42; flexible, xv, xvi, xvii, 47, 50, 68, 71, 72, 81; hard peg, 39; nominal, 26, 50, 52, 53; options, 45; policy, 41; real, 26, 27, 46, 52, 53, 69; risk, 80; shocks’ effect on, 49; soft peg, 39, 40, 42; stabilizing effect of, 50 exchange rates, floating. See floating exchange rates exchange rate regimes, 49, 50, 51; analysis of, 61; evolution of, 52 chart; extremes of, 59; floating, 66; intermediate, 59; merits of, 49; monetary independence of, 58 exports, 24, 32

Federal Reserve Board, 60; changing target funds rate, 61 financial integration, 11
Fischer, Stanley, xvi, 67 floating exchange rates, 15, 39–42, 47, 59; definitions of, 40, 41; fear of, xvi, 40, 41, 43, 66; interest rates shielded by, 66; terms-of-trade shocks in, xvi, 52
Index

floats, 51; exchange rates of, 63; shocks in, 56
Friedman, Milton, 68, 69

GDP, 32
globalization, xviii Grancolumbian Federation, 2 growth, benefits of, 36, 37; determinants of, 34

Herfindahl index, 24. See also currency unions home-bias phenomenon, 14, 21; causes of, 33
Hong Kong, xx, 59; U.S. monetary policy's effect on, 65
Hoover Institution, xv

IMF. See International Monetary Fund imports, 32
income, per capita, 35; trade affected by, 35 indexation, 44, 45
Indonesia, 68, 69
inflation rates, 12, 13, 15, 18, 69;
currency union, 23; relative, 17;
relative price-level fluctuations induced by, 27; stable, 16 interest rates, 13, 58; bank-deposit, 44; currency board countries affected by, 65; currency pressure reduced by, 68;
cutting, 73; domestic, 58, 60, 62, 72; of Ecuador, 4; floating-rate countries affected by, 65; indexation's effect on, 44, 45; inflation's effect on, 77; monetary regimes affected by, 58;
policy, 41; United States, 63-65; U.S. monetary policy's effect on, 61 International Monetary Fund, 51, 67; exchange rate regimes classified by, 51; negotiations with Ecuador, 4, 6 international transactions, 21; bilateral trade flow determinants of, 24, 25; border effect on, 29; common currency's effect on, 25; currency unions' effect on, 22; distance effect on, 24, 25; diversification of, 28;
gravity model of, 24
investment, domestic, 42
investors, international, 60; stabilizing confidence of, 68

Japan, 78, 79

Korea, 40, 68

Latin America, 40, 47, 59

Malhuad, Jamil, 3, 4, 6, 8
Malaysia, 68
markets, capital, 45; domestic, 49;
foreign exchange, 43, 51, 58;
international, 59; international capital, 44-46; labor, 69; risk sharing, 81 markets, emerging. See emerging markets Mediterannea, 7
Menem, Carlos, 3
Mexico, 59; Banco de, 60; exchange rates in, 66; interest rates in, 41 monetary policy, xvi, 60, 61, 77; business cycles synchronized by, 79; emerging market, 70; expansionary, xviii, 59, 68; independent, 14; international monetary policy coordination, 78; monopolies effected by, 79; Mundell-Fleming model of, 68, 71 (see also Mundell, Robert); noncooperative, 80, 81; real shocks affected by, 70
Morgan, J. P., 62
Mundell, Robert, xvii, 11, 49

New Zealand, 60, 65

Noboa, Gustava, 7

Obstfeld, Maurice, xvii

pegs, 50, 51, 53; exchange rate, 72; permanent, 57; shocks in, 56; soft, 39-42; sustainability of, 71
Index

Philippines, 43, 68
policy, exchange rate, 67–75, 69, 73;
international monetary cooperation, 78–81; tariff, 79; World Bank, 68
policy, monetary See monetary policy Poole, William, 49
population, 32

Reinhart, Carmen, xvii, 51 reserves, international, 41
Rogoff, Kenneth, xvii
Rose, Andrew, xix
Russia, 60

seignorage revenue, 15; of Singapore, 59 Stiglitz, Joseph, 67

terms-of-trade shocks. See trade shocks Thailand, 40, 68
theory, economic, 34

trade, bilateral, 32, 33, 36; currency union stimulation of, 32; gravity model of, 32, 34; influence on growth, 32, 34; openness of, 35; U.S. monetary policy's effect on, 61
trade shocks, 49, 52, 53, 56, 69;
emerging market, 60, 61; external, 72;
flexible rate countries affected by, 72;
floats affected by, 56; inevitability of, 70; inflationary, 53; negative, 50, 57;
pegs affected by, 56; real, 50; real output response to, 54 chart

U.S. Federal Reserve, 16, 57

Velasco, Andres, xvi

wages, flexible, 80
Zettelmeyer, Jeromin, xvii