Index

academic integrity standards programs: benefits of, 16–17; growing number of, 11–12; transmitting core values through, 12–17
Achilles, 90
Achilles in Vietnam (Shay), 91 adolescent character development, 51–52
African-American cultural maxims, 8, 10n.13
African-American Proverbs in Context (Prhalad), 7 agency: link between sense of self and, 73–74; tension between moral functioning and, 73, 82–83. See also ethics; morality aidos (negative appraisal of self), 14
American Association of Higher Education, 151
American Psychiatric Association, 51 ancient Greek culture: Stoicism development in, 88–96; strong bodies/minds beliefs of, 96, 98–99
Anderson, Debbie, 125
Andreotta, Glenn, 108 anger/rage, 104–9 apprenticeship model of schools, 137
Aquinas, Thomas, 87
Arendt, Hannah, 23
Aristotelian moral education approach, 25–27, 35, 41
Aristotle, 25–27, 34, 87, 88, 98, 105, 106
Aspen Declaration on Character Education, 37–38
Association of American Colleges and Universities, 151
Astin, Alexander, 167
attachment bond development, 50, 51
Augustine, Saint, 26, 28, 29, 30 authority: authoritarianism vs., 180–81; distinguished from power, 181–82 automony, progressive vs. directive view of, 34

Bakhtin, Mikhael, 4
Bandura, A., 75
Battistich, V. A., 57
Baumeister, Roy, 52
Bebeau, Muriel, 154
Bishop, Dorothy, 8
Blasi, A., 74
Blasi, Gus, 20
Blatt, Moshe, 132
Boston University, 41
Brand, Cabell, 170
Brothers, Christopher, 9
Brown, Lynn, 3
Buls, Verla, 125
Burke, Edmund, 178

Campus Compact, 151
Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 160
Center for Academic Integrity, 11
Center for the Advancement of Ethics and Character (Boston University), 41

Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, 58 character: espousing/practicing positive, 60; as individual's set of psychological characteristics, 48–49; new focus of moral psychology on, 71–80; sources of, 53–55; various definitions of, 47–48
Character Counts Coalition, 37, 38
Character Counts program (Fallon Park Elementary), 38–39, 41 character development: adolescent, 52–53; childhood, 51–52; import of experience on, 123–25; infant and toddler, 50–51, 118–19; influence of observed treatment on, 59–60; parenting and, 55–56; parenting styles and, 55–56; principles of, 114–15; role of moral education in, 121–23; role of parents and society in, 53–55, 58–59, 116–17; self-control acquired through, 118–19; stages of, 49–50; treatment of child influence on, 58–59
Character Development Project, 58
Character Education Partnership, 45, 48 character education programs: absence of "felt knowledge" in, 20–21; Aspen Declaration on Character Education principles on, 37–38; current focus on prevention behaviors of, 11; debate over transmission of, 3; future of, 62–63; higher education, 61–62; maxims to live by used in, 5–10; overview of current state of, 45–47; parental involvement in, 61; research on successful, 56–58; role of discipline, self-discipline, and internalization in, 119–21; school environment issues of, 130; summary of what works in, 58–61; terminology of, 44–45; transmitting moral knowledge/ideals as essential for, 2–5; value of teacher/student bonding to, 125–27; viewed as indoctrination, 2. See also moral education; schools Child Development Project, 46, 56–57 children: Aristotle on moral development of, 26–27; character development and treatment observed by, 59–60; character development and treatment of, 58–59; daily practice with moral values by, 81–83; development of character in, 49–53, 118–19; duty of society to civilize, 23–24; moral education and autonomy of, 34; morality of constraint vs. cooperation among, 137; moral reasoning opportunities of, 60–61; Rousseau on moral development of, 27–30
Christian doctrine: directive style of moral education and, 30; on healing of love and compassion, 92; on human nature, 26, 28. See also religion
Chrysippus, 88
Cicero, 88–89, 95, 99, 102, 104
civic education: adult status of higher education students and, 162–65; college vocational training vs., 165–66; conclusions regarding higher education, 168–71; higher education approaches to, 158–62; intellectual weakness of higher education, 167–68. See also moral education
Cleanthes, 88
Cluster School: approach to discipline of stealing by, 144–47; attempted adoption of madrich role in, 139; benefits of participation in, 148; community meetings held in, 135; Harvard field trip sponsored by, 135–36; origins of, 133–34; participatory democracy practiced in, 134–38. See also Just Community Schools codes of conduct: benefits of school honor, 16–17; core values transmitted through school honor, 12–17; military linking of morality and, 100–104 cognitive-developmental tradition, 67
"Cognitive Development Theory and the Practice of Collective Moral Education" (Kohlberg), 133 cognitive moral development, 31–33
Colbum, Larry, 108
Colby, Anne, 78
collective norms: building community through, 143–47; challenge of identifying higher education, 158–62; defining, 144 Columbine High School massacre (1999), 35–37, 39–40 community: built through collective norms, 143–47; school reinforcement of values held by, 116; schools within, 116–17 community service, 117 concept of persons, 50, 51
Confessions (Saint Augustine), 29 core values: associated with moral maturity, 74–75; challenge of identifying higher education, 158–62; debate over transmitting vs. indoctrinating, 1–2; debate over "whose," 1, 121–22, 155–62; as essential to character education, 2–5, 81–83, 121–23; honor codes used to transmit, 12–17; responsibility of conserving/transmitting, 18; school reinforcement of community, 116

Hoover Press : Damon DP5 HPDAMOINDX 02-14-:2 13:41:05 rev0 page 189

Coriolanus (Shakespeare character), 90, 111 Corporation for National Service, 151 cultures: ancient Greek and Roman, 88–96, 96, 98–99; discipline that changes peer, 139, 141–42; diversity of norms in different, 157–58; maxims of African-American, 8, 10n.13; maxims as "memory bank" of civilized, 6; "proverb tradition" emphasized by some, 7

Damon, William, 40, 78, 122, 164, 170
Dearen, Nan, 41
demandingness parenting, 56
Democracy and Education (Dewey), 4
DeMott, Benjamin, 40
Dewey, John, 4, 18, 19, 136
Diogenes the Cynic, 92 directive style of moral education, 30–31, 33, 34 discipline: character development role by, 119–21; influence of methods used by school, 115–16; Just Community Schools use of peer, 143–47; "the morality of the classroom," 139–42; Ms. Jones's authoritarian approach to cheating, 139–42
Discrimination Day school experiment, 124–25
Durkheim, Emile, 133
Duvall, Robert, 102

Edney, "Bud," 97
education: civic, 158–71; institutions of ghetto, 179–80; value-neutral, 25, 116, 152–55. See also higher education; moral education Education Week, 36
egkrateia (self-control), 98
"Eleven Principles of Effective Character Education" (Character Education Partnership), 45–46
Elliott, Jane, 124–25
Emile (Rousseau), 29 emotions: Aristotle's view on responsive nature of, 105–6; shame, 14–15; Stoicism on belief definition of, 106; Stoicism on controlling anger/rage, 104–9; Stoicism on detachment from, 87–88, 89–90, 91–93; transportation through, 94–96 empathy: becoming another through sympathy, 94–96; development of, 50–51
Enchiridion (Epictetus), 85
Epictetus, 85, 87, 88, 89
Epicureanism, 88
"Ethical Choices: Individual Voices" (TV program), 24–25 ethics: Aristotle vs. Rousseau's approach to, 25–30; military linking of good manners and, 100–105; Naval Academy course in, 86–87; superseded by promotion of self-worth, 32; value-free approach to teaching, 25. See also morality experience: character development and, 123–25; Discrimination Day school experiment, 124–25; POW survivor, 85–86; teacher inclusion of moral, 3 extracurricular activities: experience generated through, 121; as vital part of education, 115

Fallon Park Elementary School (Virginia), 38–39
Fekula, Michael J., 61
"felt knowledge," 20–21
formalist tradition, 67–68 friendship bonds, 90–91

Gardner, Howard, 49 genetic influences, 54–55 ghetto education institutions, 179–80
Gilligan, Carol, 20
Golden Gate Elementary School (Oakland, Calif.), 8
Gould, David, 13–14
The Great Santini (film), 102 guilt development, 52

A Handbook For Developing and Sustaining Honor Codes (Gould), 13
Harper's magazine, 40
Harris, Eric, 35, 36

Hoover Press : Damon DP5 HPDAMOINDX 02-14-:2 13:41:05 rev0 page 190

hidden curriculum practices, 152–53
Hierocles, 94, 96
higher education: academic integrity standards programs in, 11–12; arguments against moral education in, 162–65; character education in, 61–62; conclusions regarding civic/moral education in, 168–71; corporate vs. public purpose model of, 149–52; debate over "whose" values to use in, 155–62; hidden curriculum practices of, 152–53; intellectual weakness of moral/civic, 167–68; moral/civic education programs of, 158–62; promoting value-neutral, 152–55; significant influence on society by, 150–51; students' frames of references and values assumptions of, 153–55; vocational training of, 165–66. See also schools
Hirsch, E. D., 10
Hoffman, Martin, 50
honor: Greek emphasis on education and, 15; moral development theory on ideal of, 15–16; understood through historical context, 14n.17, 15 honor codes: benefits of, 16–17; core values transmitted through, 12–17 honos (honor), 14–15 human nature: Christian doctrine on, 26, 28; Kant's dualistic view of, 68; Rousseau on, 29 identification-internationalization (psychoanalytic) tradition, 67 Iliad (Homer), 90, 91

indoctrination: cases of educational, 17–18; criticism of directive approach as, 34; debate over transmitting core values vs., 1–2
"Indoctrination versus Relativity in Value Education" (Kohlberg), 2 induction parenting, 55–56 infant character development, 50–51, 118–19 institutions: case for authority in, 180–82; matching moral/civic education approaches to, 168–69; moral neutrality and legitimacy of, 175–76; strategies of responsiveness used by, 176–80; success of ghetto education, 179–80 internalization, 120
Israeli Youth Aliyah Kibbutz high school program, 133

Jarvis, William F. Washington, 39
Jefferson Junior High (Washington, D.C.,), 39
Jones, Ms. (teacher), 139–42
Josephson Institute of Ethics conference (1992), 37–38
Judeo-Christian tradition: directive style of moral education and, 30; on healing of love compassion, 92; on human nature, 26, 28. See also religion
Just Community Schools: benefits of participation in, 147–48; characterized by shared expectations/norms, 143–47; democratic decision-making approach by, 129–30; democratic practices of, 134–38; democratic role of teachers in, 138–43; effective approach taken by, 56, 57; schoolwide cultural transformation stressed in, 46–47; weekly community meeting of, 134. See also Cluster School justice, 72–73

Kant, Immanuel, 67–68, 87, 103–4
Kerr, Clark, 176
kibbutz schools (Israel): Kohlberg's report on, 133; role of madrich (adult leader) in, 138–39
Kids with Character (Dallas), 41
King, Martin Luther, Jr., 124
Klebold, Dylan, 35, 36
Kochanska, Grazyna, 52
Kohlberg, Lawrence: cognitive moral development approach, 31, 68–69, 164; democracy and community focus of, 143; on effectiveness of Socratic questioning, 138; on importance of collective norms, 144, 145, 146; on indoctrination of children, 2; Just Community approach contributions by, 129; on "little Republic" ideal school, 132–33, 148; on moral maturity of justice, 72; teacher role in discipline studied by, 135
Kohn, Alfie, 2, 40
kosmopolitês (cosmic, universal citizen), 92–93

Hoover Press : Damon DP5 HPDAMOINDX 02-14-:2 13:41:05 rev0 page 191

Lasley, Thomas, 40
Law of Fortuitous Reversals, 41
Law of Unintended Consequences, 41
Learn and Serve Higher Education initiative (Corporation for National Service), 151 legitimate authority, 180–81
Leideker, M., 9
Leschner, Alan, 57
Lickona, Thomas, 48, 52
"little Republic" ideal school, 132–33, 148
Lord of the Flies (Golding), 29
Louis XVI, King (France), 176

MacIntyre, Alasdair, 4
madrich (kibbutz school adult leader), 138–39, 141–42
Mann, Horace, 136
Marcus Aurelius, 88, 89, 94
Marquette University (Milwaukee), 62
Marx, Groucho, 176
maxims: defining, 6; passed during adult-child interactions, 5–7, 21; Plato's two, 69; significance of memorizing, 10; teaching strategies for learning, 9–10
McCabe, Donald, 11
McGuffey Readers, 30
Meditations (Marcus Aurelius), 89
Meider, S., 6
Messiah College, 160
military man: camaraderie relationships to, 90–91; emotional detachment of, 89–90; good manners/good morals of, 100–104; My Lai (Vietnam) and, 107–9; Stoicism on anger and, 107–8; Stoicism emotional detachment and, 91–94; Stoicism sound bodies/minds belief and, 96–100; world citizenship notion and, 93–94. See also Naval Academy; Stoicism philosophy Mill, John Stuart, 33, 887 moral anatomy, 48–49 moral autonomy, 18–19 moral development theory: Aristotle vs. Rousseau on, 25–30; cognitive, 31–33; competing perspectives of, 67–71; on ideal of honor, 15–16; implications of, 173–75; Kohlberg's model of, 68–69, 131–34, 164; terms used to describe, 19–20 moral education: arguments against higher education, 162–65; Aristotelian approach to, 25–27, 35, 41; Augustinian doctrine regarding, 26, 28; college vocational training vs., 165–66; conclusions regarding higher education, 168–71; directive style of, 30–31, 33; higher education approaches to, 158–62; inspiring stories approach to, 33; intellectual weakness of higher education, 167–68; Kohlberg's interest in, 131–34; lessons of Stoicism for, 109–11; principles of, 114–15; progressive vs. traditional directive style of, 30; purpose of, 34; role of character values in, 121–23; Rousseau on, 27–30; value-free approach to, 30–33; values, 44. See also character education programs
The Moral Education of the Child (Piaget), 137 Moral Education (Sizer and Sizer lectures), 30 moral excellence conceptions, 72–77 moral exemplars: benefits of analyzing behavior of, 77–80; impact on children by, 82 moral functioning: conception of moral excellence and, 72–77; examining moral exemplars and their, 77–80; interactive nature of, 66–67; moral psychology applied to, 80–83; moral psychology's preoccupation with, 70–71; new focus on personality/character and, 71–80; tension between agency and, 73, 82–83 moral identity: adult achievement of, 164; debate over generational transmission of, 4; formation of, 53 morality: character as ability to behave, 48; competing moral psychology perspectives of, 67–68; of constraint vs. cooperation, 137; cultural differences in conceptions of, 157–58; implications of "development" of, 173–75; Kohlberg's model of, 68–69; military linking of good manners and, 100–105; as part of everyday life, 81; working multifaceted definition of, 66–67. See also ethics
"the morality of the classroom" discipline, 139–42 moral maturity: Kohlberg on early adult achievement of, 164; Kohlberg's cluster vision of, 72–74; virtues associated with, 74–75 moralogy, 44

moral personality: analysis of moral exemplars's, 79–80; aspects of, 78; McAdams's typology of personality assessment and, 79; new focus of moral psychology on, 71–80 moral psychology: applications of, 80–83; competing perspectives of, 67–71; emphasis on moral rationality by, 69–70; Kant's formalist tradition of, 67–68; Kohlberg's structuralist cognitive-development tradition of, 68–69, 131–34; on moral excellence conceptions, 72–77; new focus on personality/character of, 71–80; social learning, identification-internalization, cognitive-developmental traditions of, 67. See also Stoicism philosophy moral reasoning/rationality: competing perspectives on, 67–71; development of, 53; emphasis of moral psychology on, 69–70; Kohlbert on cultivation of, 131–34; opportunities to debate/reflect on, 60–61 moral schizophrenia, 70 moral values. See core values
Mother Waddles, 170
My Lai (Vietnam), 107–9

National Institute on Drug Abuse, 57
Naval Academy: ethics course developed by, 86–87; hierarchy of rank and respect at, 102–3; male/female body fat standards of, 99. See also military man
Nero, 89
Nixon, Richard, 177
"The Nobel Prize for Being You" assignment, 32
Nucci, L., 48

obligations/rights link, 178 old Stoa, 88
"On Anger" (Seneca), 104
On Duties (Cicero), 89, 95, 102
On Ends (Cicero), 89
"On Favours" (Seneca), 101–2, 103
On Liberty (Mill), 33

parents: character development and, 55–56; involvement in school's character education by, 61, 116–17; role in character development by, 53–54, 58–59; role of discipline stressed by, 119–21; role in education of adult students by, 163 parochial ghetto schools, 179–80 Patroclus, 90, 91 peers: character development influence of, 54; Just Community Schools use of discipline by, 143–47; madrich use of power of, 139, 141–42; mentoring among, 115–16; morality of cooperation among, 137. See also students person concept development, 50, 51 perspective-taking development, 52
Perzynski, Theodore, 125
Peters, Richard, 23
philia (friendship), 90–91
Piaget, Jean, 131, 133, 137, 138
Plato, 26, 69, 98–99
Pledge of Allegiance, 38, 40
Portland State University, 161
Positive Action, 57
POW survivor experience, 85–86 prevention behavior programs, 11
Prhalad, Anand, 7–8, 9 progressive moral education approach, 30, 34–35 proverb masters, 8 psychopathology, 51

rationalization, 75
Readings in Values Clarification (Simon and Kirschenbaum), 31 religion: liberal humanism, 174–75; responsibility to foster moral/civic learning by, 165; teaching significance of historical, 116. See also Judeo-Christian tradition Republic (Plato), 98
Resolving Conflict Creatively Program, 46, 57, 58
Responsive Classroom, 46, 57 responsiveness strategies, 176–80 responsivity/nurturance parenting, 55
Rest, James, 154
Richard II (Shakespeare), 15 rights/obligations link, 178
Ring of Gyges (Platonic question), 15n.19

Hoover Press : Damon DP5 HPDAMOINDX 02-14-:2 13:41:05 rev0 page 193

risk-prevention: current focus of character education on, 11; research on drug risk factors and, 57–58
Roanoke antipoverty programs, 164, 170
Rolland, Susan, 125
Roman culture: Stoicism development in, 88–96; strong bodies/minds beliefs of, 98–99
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 25, 27–30, 35, 37, 41
Ryan, Kevin, 41

Saint Andrew's High School (Boca Raton, Fla.), 13–14
Scheffler, Israel, 8–9 schools: apprenticeship model of, 137; authoritarian vs. democratic participation, 135–36; character development influence of, 54; character education programs and environment of, 130; Columbine High School massacre (1999) impact on, 35–37, 39–40; community values/social roles reinforced by, 116; current state of character education in, 45–47; deemphasized moral functions perspective of, 19n.24; discipline methods for infractions by, 115–16; Discrimination Day experiment in Iowa classroom, 124–25; diversity within unity approach by, 118; encouragement of self-discipline, internalization by, 119–21; experience gained through, 123–25; good character expectations by, 60; influence of Rousseau's thinking on, 30; integration between business world and, 117; involvement of parents in character education by, 61; kibbutz, 133, 138–39; Kohlberg's "little Republic," 132–33, 148; "the morality of the classroom" discipline in, 139–42; responsiveness strategies used by, 177–78; successful character education approaches used by, 56–58; within communities, 116–17. See also character education programs; higher education Second Step, 57, 58 self: integrity and development of moral, 74–75; link between agency and sense of, 73–74; Stoicism on emotions and, 87–88, 89–90 self-control: ancient Greek/Roman thought on, 98; character development as acquiring, 118–19; danger of excessive, 119; development of, 51–52 self-control/altruism modeled parenting style, 56 self-discipline development, 120–21
Seneca, 88, 89, 101, 103, 104–5, 108 sex education, 116
shame: classical Greek society on, 14–15; as moral emotion, 14; understood through historical context, 14n.17
Shay, Jonathan, 91
Shweder, Richard, 157
Sizer, Nancy, 30–31, 33, 59
Sizer, Theodore, 30–31, 33, 59
Skepticism, 88
Smith, Adam, 94–95 socialization: children and duty of, 23–24; Columbine massacre (1999) and failure of, 35–37; maxims used during, 6 social-learning tradition, 67 social roles: school reinforcement of, 116; of teachers in democratic schools, 135–38 society: duty to civilize children by, 23–24; as existing in transmission of moral wisdom, 4; Law of Unintended Consequences to, 41; maxims as "memory bank" of civilized, 6; pluralistic nature of American, 156–57; role in character development by, 53–54; significant influence of higher education on, 150–51; weakening morality of American, 113–14
Socrates, 98
Solomon, D., 57
Solzhenitsyn, Aleksandr, 10 stealing discipline (Cluster School), 144–47
Stockdale, James B., 85–86, 87
Stoicism philosophy: character development lessons of, 109–11; on controlling anger/rage, 104–9; defining, 86; on detachment from emotions, 87–88, 89–90, 91–93; on good manners, 101–2; historic development of, 88–96; incorporated in Naval Academy ethics course, 87; military man and, 91–94; on notion of world citizen, 92–94; regarding moderation, 100; sound bodies/minds beliefs of, 96–100. See also military man; moral psychology structuralist cognitive-development tradition, 68–69 student decision-making: Just Community Schools use of, 129–30; Kohlberg's recommended encouragement of, 132 students: academic values assumptions and frames of references of, 153–55; adult status of higher education, 162–65; bonding between teachers and, 125–27; core values transmitted through honor codes to, 12–17; culture gap between teacher and, 142; defining moral autonomy of, 18–19; encouraging community service by, 117; impact of school discipline methods on, 115–16; on PBS program, 24–25; self-discipline development by, 120–21; social environment influences on, 122–23; transmitting values vs. indoctrination of, 2–3; vocational training of college, 165–66. See also peers

The Students Are Watching (Sizer and Sizer), 59 sympathy, 94–96

Tappan, Mark, 3
Taylor, Charles, 21
Taylor-Thompson, Kim, 24 teachers: bonding between students and, 125–27; Columbine High School massacre reports by, 36; culture gap between students and, 142; on family behavior, 59; inclusion of moral experience by, 3; influence on child's character by, 59–60; Just Community democratic role of, 138–43; new roles in democratic schools by, 135–38; role of discipline stressed by, 119–21; socializer role of, 32n.18; strategies for teaching maxims by, 9–10
Teachers of My Youth (Scheffler), 8
Teresa, Mother, 10
Thompson, Hugh, 107–9
toddler character development, 50–51

United States Air Force Academy, 160–61 value-neutral education: as approach to ethics, 25; difficulty in maintaining higher, 152–55; used in sex, 116 values juggernaut, 40 values moral education approach, 44 values. See core values vocational training, 165–66

Volumnia, 90

Walker, Janet, 154
Waller, Willard, 142
Watson, M. S., 57
White, Vera, 39
Williamsburg Charter, 116

Youth Charter program, 40, 41

Zeno, 88