

MACIEJ SIEKIERSKI

Curator, East European Collection

Expertise: Poland and Eastern Europe

A member of the Hoover Library staff since 1984, Maciej Siekierski has principal responsibility for the acquisition of East European library and archival materials. From 1991 to 1993, he directed the Hoover Institution's Warsaw Office, overseeing the collection and shipment to Hoover of tons of documents released by the revolutions and transitions to democracy in Eastern Europe. The holder of a Ph.D. in history from the University of California, Berkeley, he has written articles on Hoover archival collections and a variety of historical topics. In June 2001, the prime minister of Poland honored him with the Laur Award for his work on behalf of the preservation of Polish historical records.